Letter of Information for Informed Consent

You are being invited to participate in a research study on testing for deep learning systems during software evolution. This study is being conducted by XXX from XXX as part of an independent research project. This is a purely academic research project with no commercial interests.

You are being asked to participate in an interview of around 90 minutes because you are familiar with the testing and evaluating deep learning systems during the evolution process and have been involved in software development. There are no known or anticipated risks to you by participating in this research. The participation will be done at your convenience online. Your participation in this research might not benefit you directly, but it could advance the state of knowledge, in particular in software engineering.

We will anonymize the data before publishing the results; your participation will be handled confidentially. Your participation in this study must be completely voluntary. If at some point during the participation you want to stop, you are free to do so without any negative consequences and any data collected up to that point will be discarded.

If you have any questions about the study, please contact XXX from XXX. (Email Address)

By accepting the interview, your free and informed consent is implied and you understand the above conditions of participation in this study.
